Delegates to the Area Council shall be elected at a General Membership Meeting of the Local.

Section 3 – Observer at GSU Convention

An observer can be elected by the General Membership to attend the Government Services Union Convention with the local delegate. The observer must be a member in good standing and provide justification at a General Membership Meeting regarding why he/she should be selected to attend. Provisions can be made in the finances to cover the cost of the observer. A written report to the membership to appraise them of events observed must be sent to the General Membership two weeks prior to the General Membership Meeting at which she/he will be presenting.
